Victory for Carolina.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Chapel Hill, N. C., April 29.—Carolina defeated Wake Forest here this afternoon by a score of 1 to 0. The remarkable feature of the game was the magnificent pitching of Hedgepeth, allowing not the semblance of a hit and striking out ten. Only twenty-nine men faced him during the game. For the first seven innings but twenty-one men tried his delivery.

North Carolina scored in the fifth. Rose singled to centre, advanced on Armstrong's bunt, went to third on Bule's out, and counted on Williams' slashing hit to centre.

The features of the game were Utley's shoelace catch of Williams' drive to left and the holding of Hamilton and Armstrong. Armstrong accepted five out of six chances at third. His throwing was phenomenal. Wake Forest gave Daniels excellent support. Though he struck out but one man, he was steady, and his fielders did not make a single mistake.

The game this afternoon indicates the remarkable improvement of Hedgepeth since the game in Charlotte with Virginia. He shut out Kentucky with two hits, had Davidson completely at his mercy, allowed the Navy but two safeties, was but slightly heated in a pitchers' battle by Moran, of Washington, and Lee, and climaxed his rapid rise this afternoon by not permitting even a scratch.

Carolina and Wake Forest play again to-morrow in Raleigh. Stuart and Utley will be the opposing slappers.

Eastern Easy for Trinity.

Durham, N. C., April 29.—Trinity easily won from Eastern College today in a slow and uninteresting game. The visitors were outclassed in every way, fielding very poorly in contrast with the brilliant work of the home team. Frequent errors of visitors in the field, coupled with Trinity's timely hits, piled up the score, and at no time was the game in doubt. With the exception of Henderson, who replaced Thompson at second, in the sixth inning, Trinity played an errorless game, at times accepting hard chances. The features for Trinity were the long running catch of a foul fly by Houston, and the fast fielding of Cooper and Foushee.

Score: R. H. E.

Some Baseball Talk

By HALF NELSON

Jake Wells has issued an order, which arrived in Richmond yesterday afternoon, that the umpires should be the only judges as to whether it was too dark or too rainy, or too anything else, to play ball, and supplemented that order with another to the umpires to give the fans all the baseball they want.

That means that managers will have nothing more to do with the length of games, and that as long as the conditions are anything like reasonable, the game will continue until the tie is broken or it really does become too dark to play. There should, under these orders, be no more games called when the fans are clamoring for a finish.

The orders show rather good judgment on the president's part, because it will insure a finish under ordinary conditions. There are cases without number when, after playing a number of innings in a drizzle, the game goes to a ten-inning tie because of the same drizzle, that nobody minded until after the fifth inning. The darkness which is the cause for a number of called games, seems just as lacking in the tenth inning as it did in the ninth, and nothing but a managerial tip is responsible for the call.

Jack Lawlor was a sickly-looking eight last night, and he did seem to yearn to get into the game again. It will be at least three weeks, however, before he will be in any sort of shape to play ball. He will be able to man the bench from the bench before that, of course, but a sprained ankle is a sprained ankle. Mighty few of them get well without a good long rest. Lawlor said last night that he thought it was particularly lucky that he had Johnny Shaw on deck to be used in just such a pinch as this one. In this he was agreed with by all those present. Shaw has shown up in rather good form, and his base running has been of the best kind. He knows the game thoroughly, and although he may not star, he will generally be there with the headwork.

Win Clarke had a rather humorous wail last night, although the husky manager couldn't see the point to the joke. He acquired Welsher, a rather classy-looking collegian, and Welsher didn't deliver the goods as per schedule. He was batted all over the lot whenever he got in the box, and faded like an orchid before the opposing batter. Clarke finally decided to let him go. Welsher went across to Portsmouth, landed a job, and won out in two games in the five days he has been away from Norfolk. He has burned the wind in every inning, and the Portsmouth manager is looking with a large question mark over at Norfolk. In the meantime Clarke is reading of what Welsher is doing and casually contemplating what the Norfolk fans are going to say about the matter.

He will meet Carro Achmed, the Turk, to-night in the City Auditorium for the second time.

Incidentally, that Portsmouth game has had the lucky shade with them for the limit this season, and have rushed old luck to the wall. Of course, luck is most generally grabbing opportunities, but some of the games they have won this season have put it all over Little Jeff when it comes to Old Dame Fortune.

No, Bright Eyes, Jimmy Leon's eyes were blue, neither pink nor yellow, as you have thought. If you don't believe that, ask Jimmy. He's somewhere down South.

CASON WINS OUT WITH MANY WINS

Richmond Academy Field Day
Brings Forth First-Class Material for College Athletics.

J. Irvin Cason, football and baseball star and evidently a star in track and field, was awarded the medal at about all round athlete in the annual field day of the Richmond Academy yesterday. The events started at 10 o'clock yesterday morning with the standing broad jump, and continued with an intermission for lunch, until late in the afternoon. Cason won out with eight firsts and two seconds to his credit.

Altogether the school boys made a most creditable showing in the events and indicated that a goodly lot of college track and field material was all most ready for the training. The fifty-yard dash, won by Cason in six seconds, and the hundred-yard dash by the same runner in 11 3/4 seconds were probably the most creditable showings made. Cason showed up well in the pole vault with seven feet five inches to his credit.

The summaries:

Standing broad jump, midjets—Whitell, 7 feet.

220-yard dash, juniors—Cason, 27 3/4 seconds.

Standing broad jump—Carnell, 5 feet 2 inches.

Running broad jump—Pitt, 12 feet 3 inches.

440-yard dash—Cason, 1 minute 5 1/4 seconds.

Tennis singles—J. Harrison.

Tennis doubles—J. and W. Harrison.

Pie-eating contest—Walsh.

50-yard dash, midjets—Valentine, 7 seconds.

60-yard dash, juniors—Cason, 6 seconds.

100-yard dash, midjets—Valentine, 13 1/2 seconds.

100-yard dash, juniors—Cason, 11 3/4 seconds.

Running high jump, juniors—Cason, 4 feet 10 inches.

Shot put, juniors—32 feet 7 inches.

Running broad jump, juniors—Cason, 17 feet.

Hurdle race, juniors—5 1/4 seconds.

Pole vault, juniors—7 feet 5 inches.

ACHMED-TURNER BOUT TO-NIGHT

Both Men in Pink of Condition for a Hard Wrestle in City Auditorium.

Joe Turner, of Washington, and Carro Achmed, of Constantinople once, but of Virginia now, will meet for their second contest on the mat to-night in the City Auditorium. The bout will start promptly at half-past 8 o'clock with several preliminaries. The big bout will be pulled off in the neighborhood of half-past 9 o'clock.

In spite of the fact that Turner teased him in the last match in Richmond, Achmed is confident that he will be able to put it all over the Washington boy when they meet to-night. He lays great stress on the fact that when they met before he was suffering with a broken toe that was an easy mark for Turner and the toe held. The toe is all right now, and Achmed is in as good condition as he ever was in his life.

Turner has written to the officers of the First Regiment that he is ready to turn almost any kind of a trick to-night, and thinks that he will but repeat his past performance. He knows, however, that the Turk is a man on the mat, and will not go in for fancy work.

Since his first appearance in Richmond the Turk has gained a host of friends among the mat fans, and it was said yesterday that a good many bets had been placed on him at the short end of ten to seven. The wrestling matches have been almost clean of betting until now, and there is little probability of many bets being placed.

CARL WALKER TO PITCH TO-DAY

Win Clarke will stick to his statement made Thursday night, and pitch Carl Walker in the afternoon's game. He had contemplated using Walker on Saturday, because he knew that the Richmond boy, pitching against Richmond, would be a drawing card. Incidentally, Clarke is confident that in Walker he has a "find" of the purest ray. Walker has shown up to advantage in every workout so far, and unless something happens, he should improve with the season. So far, however, he has not even had a sort arm or a strained muscle.

Either Ohi or Hale will work against Norfolk this afternoon, and the Colts will go after the last of the series with every good intention. Clarke's men showed yesterday that they were neither hitting nor fielding as they should, and the Colts want to keep them in the same condition until the last batter goes down this afternoon.

Amusements.
